

BAI JERBAI WADIA LIBRARY

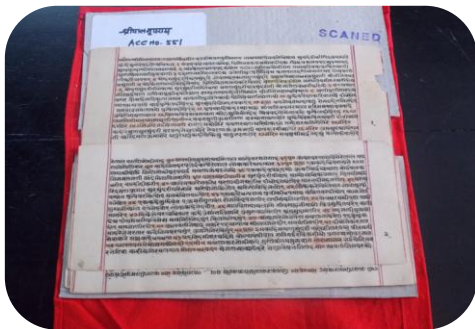

INTRODUCTION

The building of the Bai Jerbai Wadia Library, comprising of two floors, was completed in May 1929 with a munificent donation from the Wadia brothers. The library was named after their mother Bai Jerbai Wadia Library. It is one of the three main buildings of the college.

COLLECTION

The Bai Jerbai Wadia Library on ground floor has nearly 2,57,996 books and many research journals. Brail books section is also part of library. We have rare books and rare form of book like manuscripts, palm leaves, matter/script written on silk cloth in our collection. These are preserved in the library with proper care and condition. Preservation of manuscripts and rare books is partly finished. Sheaf catalogue- the oldest form of catalogue is also available and preserved. Many research scholars and book-lovers have, over the years, donated a large number of their own personal collection to the library e.g. Wrangler R.P.Paranjpe, Dr. G.S.Mahajni, Prin.S.V.Kogekar, Prof. R.S.Joag, Prof.D.D Wadekar many others and the Library has become fabulously rich in its valuable collection.

The library is blessed with a remarkable collection of statues and posters, dedicated to outstanding national leaders and educationalists. There are old trophies, cups and medals received by the college at different occasions. All these are displayed, with honor, in the library. The library is fully automated /computerized. With the advancement of technology new form of books/journals like e-books, e-journals, databases are also part of library collection. Library has valuable collection of archives as well as current research.
